

RULES TO BE OBSERVED DURING MUSEUM VISITS

• Visitors must present identification at the entrance when required. • Photographs must be taken without using flash in order to prevent damage to historical artifacts. • During group visits, tour approval must be presented to authorized personnel without waiting to be asked. • Visitors participating in group tours must not separate from the group. • Visitors must comply with the warnings issued by staff and the visitor rules posted within the museum. • Artifacts must not be damaged or touched under any circumstances. • Visitors must avoid behavior that may disturb others during the visit. Speaking loudly and entering the museum with food or beverages is prohibited. • Visitors should thank the staff members whose expertise they consult regarding the exhibits.